EXCERPT FROM ILLINOIS VITAL STATISTICS ACT

An Act to amend Section 20 of "An Act to provide for the registration of all births, stillbirths and deaths in the State of Illinois, and to repeal an Act herein named," approved June 22, 1915, as amended.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 20, of "An Act to provide for the registration of all births, stillbirths and deaths in the State of Illinois, and to repeal an Act herein named," approved June 22, 1915, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

Section 55-20. The Department of Public Health, any local registrar or any county clerk shall, on request, furnish a certification of the record of any birth, stillbirth or death to any applicant entitled to the same upon the payment by such applicant of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) to the maker of such certification. The certification of birth may contain only the name, sex, date of birth and place of birth of the person to whom it relates, and none of the other data on the certificate of birth. Any such certification of a birth, stillbirth or death, when properly certified to by the Department of Public Health or the local registrar or the county clerk, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated.

*The Custodian of the birth registration record shall not issue any other copy of such records, or any part thereof; provided, however, that * **

2. A certified copy of the certificate of birth may be issued

- (a) Upon the order of a court of record, or
- (b) Upon the specific written request by the person, if of legal age, or by a parent or other legal representative of the person to whom the record of birth relates, or
- (c) Upon the specific written request by a department of the state or a municipal corporation or the federal government.

Amendment approved Aug. 10, 1949.
